

I urge that you support all the FCC rules in question, keeping current rules in place. I believe we should maintain limits on the concentration of the broadcast industry, thereby serving the public interest by preserving diversity of ownership.